

With Love, Christina

A Light in the Sun

There's a light approaching the islands and Hawaii will never be the same,
For this light will be making a difference as it has again and again.
This light is filled to the brim, with wondrous sparkles and gleam
And in each sparkle holds expressions of God from which this light does beam.
Sparkles of incredible facets that are gifts that keep on giving,
Like courage and love and compassion, which inspire us to higher living.
This light is you, dear Rima, and we've watched you expand and soar,
While you guided us on through ebbs and flows and sparked us to be more.
Your talents, insight and vision have spurred transformation in all,
Through the church, each of us, you, yourself—yes, you have answered the call.
It's a call that now takes you forward with Toby and Sophie, too,
To a land of beauty and breezes, sunsets of many hues.
We send you now, with heartfelt thanks for all you've given and done,
To your greater good, your greater life, of love and joy and sun!

by Christina Webb

The Chair

Our gift of acknowledgement a chair well made its cushion of suede, not prone to fade.
Sage is its color, soothing to the eye
Resting in it evokes a deep sigh
its supportive, soft and oh so comforting.
Symbolically similar to the "Servant Leader" you are representing.
Farolyn, it is you that we love and so revere.
It's your authenticity and genuineness that we hold so dear.
Supporting is something you do so well for us all you have listened to the guidance in answering the call.
The call to be a leader and a true shining star
To give of you freely and always go far.
To be loving, playful, standing strong in your light
You are wise, a blessing, and a real delight!
For it is with this symbol that we proclaim it true
Thank you, thank you, for just being you.

by Christina Webb and Lydia Smith

with contributions from Servant Leadership Class Fall 2005